

Match the Parenthesis

Draw lines to match the sentences to the extra information that could be added to them. Next, add the extra information to the sentence using brackets, dashes or commas, and write out the completed sentence.

The first one has been done for you.

The football sailed over the fence.
Your essay was really excellent.
My cat has ginger fur.
Several cheeses were laid out to accompany the crackers.
The postman delivered his last letter.
We can't wait to go to the funfair.

the one about the Egyptians	=
exhausted and drenched	=
it's on Saturday	=
which was Year 5's only ball	=
Wensleydale, Cheddar and Brie	=
whose name is Tiger	=

.....
 =

.....
 =

.....
 =

The football, which was Year 5's only ball,
 sailed over the fence.
 =

.....
 =

.....
 =

Match the Parenthesis

Answers

Draw lines to match the sentences to the extra information that could be added to them. Next, add the extra information to the sentence using brackets, dashes or commas, and write out the completed sentence.

The first one has been done for you.

Brackets, dashes or commas are interchangeable in some of the answers.
The placement of some parenthesis may vary.

The football sailed over the fence.	the one about the Egyptians
Your essay was really excellent.	exhausted and drenched
My cat has ginger fur.	it's on Saturday
Several cheeses were laid out to accompany the crackers.	which was Year 5's only ball
The postman delivered his last letter.	Wensleydale, Cheddar and Brie
We can't wait to go to the funfair.	whose name is Tiger

=
Your essay (the one about the Egyptians) was really excellent.

=
The postman, exhausted and drenched, delivered his last letter.

=
We can't wait to go to the funfair — it's on Saturday.

=
The football, which was Year 5's only ball, sailed over the fence.

=
Several cheeses — Wensleydale, Cheddar and Brie — were laid out to accompany the crackers.

=
My cat (whose name is Tiger) has ginger fur.