

Feeding time

Read the passage below. In each box, write down a synonym for the underlined word.

It was feeding time at the seal sanctuary. Daniel checked his microphone was working by giving it a quick tap and then walked out onto the platform where the excited crowd was waiting. The seals had gathered in the water — they'd noticed that their food was almost ready. Daniel put down the bucket and turned to see the crowd.

“Hello and thanks for joining me for this morning’s feed. I’m happy you can be here.

In this pool, we have five amazing seals all waiting to be fed,” he was cut off as one of the seals jumped out of the water and started to move towards the bucket.

“It looks like Celia is especially hungry today!” laughed Daniel.
