

Fiction worksheet

Answer these questions on fiction story types.

1. Which type of story would you find each character in? Use the words in the box.

.....

2. What type of story do you think this passage comes from? Tick a box.

Simon panted as he sprinted down the gravelly slope. Behind him, a huge boulder tumbled down the canyon, nipping at Simon's heels like a bloodthirsty hound. Out of the corner of his eye, he saw a narrow gap in the rock and immediately dived into it. The boulder surged past him and its thunderous noise gradually faded to a gentle rumble.

"Phew, close shave," Simon wheezed, wiping the sweat from his brow.

Adventure story ☐

Fairy tale ☐

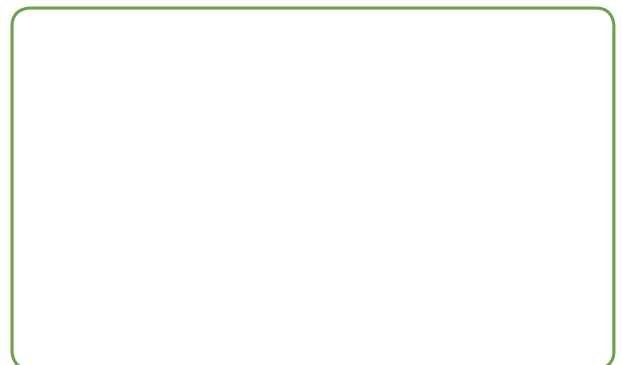

Mystery story ☐

3. Can you draw a suitable setting for each story?

A horror story called 'The Haunting'.

A science fiction story called 'Invaders'.

Fiction worksheet

4. Draw lines to match each story type to the right definition and example.

Definition

A traditional story based on real events. Details have been changed or exaggerated.

Myth

A story which takes place in an imaginary world and involves magic

Fantasy story

A story used by an ancient culture to explain the world around them.

Science fiction story

A story which is set in the future and involves advanced technology.

Legend

Example

A story about a boy who really existed. He became king after pulling a sword from an anvil.

A very old story about Persephone that explains why we have seasons.

A story where astronauts travel to an unknown planet.

A story set in a mystical kingdom filled with wizards and goblins.

5. Write down two characters and one setting you might find in each type of story.

Fairy tale

Character 1:

Character 2:

Setting:

Adventure story

Character 1:

Character 2:

Setting:

Fiction worksheet

Answers

Answer these questions on fiction story types.

1. Which type of story would you find each character in? Use the words in the box.

Mystery

Horror

Fantasy

2. What type of story do you think this passage comes from? Tick a box.

Simon panted as he sprinted down the gravelly slope. Behind him, a huge boulder tumbled down the canyon, nipping at Simon's heels like a bloodthirsty hound. Out of the corner of his eye, he saw a narrow gap in the rock and immediately dived into it. The boulder surged past him and its thunderous noise gradually faded to a gentle rumble.

"Phew, close shave," Simon wheezed, wiping the sweat from his brow.

Adventure story ☒

Fairy tale ☐

Mystery story ☐

3. Can you draw a suitable setting for each story?

A horror story called 'The Haunting'.

A science fiction story called 'Invaders'.

Any suitable drawing

Any suitable drawing

Fiction worksheet

Answers

4. Draw lines to match each story type to the right definition and example.

Definition

A traditional story based on real events. Details have been changed or exaggerated.

A story which takes place in an imaginary world and involves magic

A story used by an ancient culture to explain the world around them.

A story which is set in the future and involves advanced technology.

Myth

Fantasy story

Science fiction story

Legend

Example

A story about a boy who really existed. He became king after pulling a sword from an anvil.

A very old story about Persephone that explains why we have seasons.

A story where astronauts travel to an unknown planet.

A story set in a mystical kingdom filled with wizards and goblins.

5. Write down two characters and one setting you might find in each type of story.

Fairy tale

Character 1: E.g. A princess

Character 2: E.g. A fairy godmother

Setting: E.g. A magical kingdom made of ice

Adventure story

Character 1: E.g. An explorer

Character 2: E.g. A pirate

Setting: E.g. A jungle filled with hidden treasure

