What Is an Acrostic Poem?

Then, you think of words or phrases beginning with each letter.
Like this...

Personal thoughts

On each line

Express your feelings

Make people happy

Spot the Subject

Can you use the first letter of each line to help you to work out what each acrostic poem is about?

Fins are moving
I am swimming
Salty ocean is my home
Hurry, a shark is coming!

Dancing on the waves
Over the water I jump
Long strides swimming
Perfectly gliding
Happy and playful
I laugh all day
Never-ending adventures

Sneakily glide
Hunting for prey
Always silently watching
Ready for a chase
Krill, dolphins or YOU!

Over the waves
Creeping under the water
Every type of creature
Animals that breathe underwater
Near the ocean floor

Writing an Acrostic Poem

First, think of a theme, e.g. sharks.

Next, collect lots of ideas about that theme.

Then, write the letters of your theme word vertically down the page in capital letters, like this:

SHARK →

S
H
R
K

hunter

teeth

circling

fin

Writing an Acrostic Poem

Finally, use your ideas to write each line of the poem. Don't worry if you can't think of the lines in order. It is fine to go back and add any missing lines afterwards as long as your poem makes sense.

Stealthily glides

Hunting for prey

Angry and waiting

Rapidly chasing his meal

Kicking and swimming, the fish escapes
