What is an adjective?

Yesterday, we thought of adjectives to describe this orange. Today, we are going to use these adjectives and write some sentences to describe it.

Smooth

Round

Juicy

orange

Soft

delicious

Sweet

Bitter

We could write:

The orange looks juicy.

This sentence tells us what the orange looks like.

Think of another sentence to describe the orange and share it with your grown up.

Punctuation Pup just wants to check that you
remembered to use:

- Capital letters
- Finger spaces
- Full stops

We could extend our sentence to include more information by adding another adjective. To do this we could add a conjunction. Today, we are going to use 'and'.

Our extended sentence will now look like this:

The orange looks juicy and tastes sweet.

Think about how you could extend your sentence by adding another adjective and using the conjunction 'and'.

Share your sentence with your grown up.

Punctuation Pup just wants to check that you remembered to use:

- Capital letters
- Finger spaces
- Full stops

Now try writing a sentence to describe Fantastic Mr Fox.

You can use the adjectives on the slide or think of some of your own. Can you challenge yourself and use the conjunction 'and'.

Share your sentence with your grown up.

Fast
Careful
Clever
Caring
Sharp claws
Pointy ears

Bushy tail
Red, ginger, orange fur
Skinny
Smart (smartly dressed)

Punctuation Pup just wants to check that you remembered to use:

- Capital letters
- Finger spaces
- Full stops

These are the sentences that Mrs. T. and I came up with to describe Fantastic Mr Fox:

Fantastic Mr Fox has sharp claws.

We then decided to add some more information by using the conjunction ‘and’.

Fantastic Mr Fox has sharp claws and pointy ears.
