

Superheroes

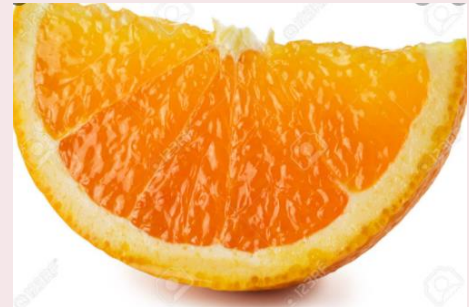

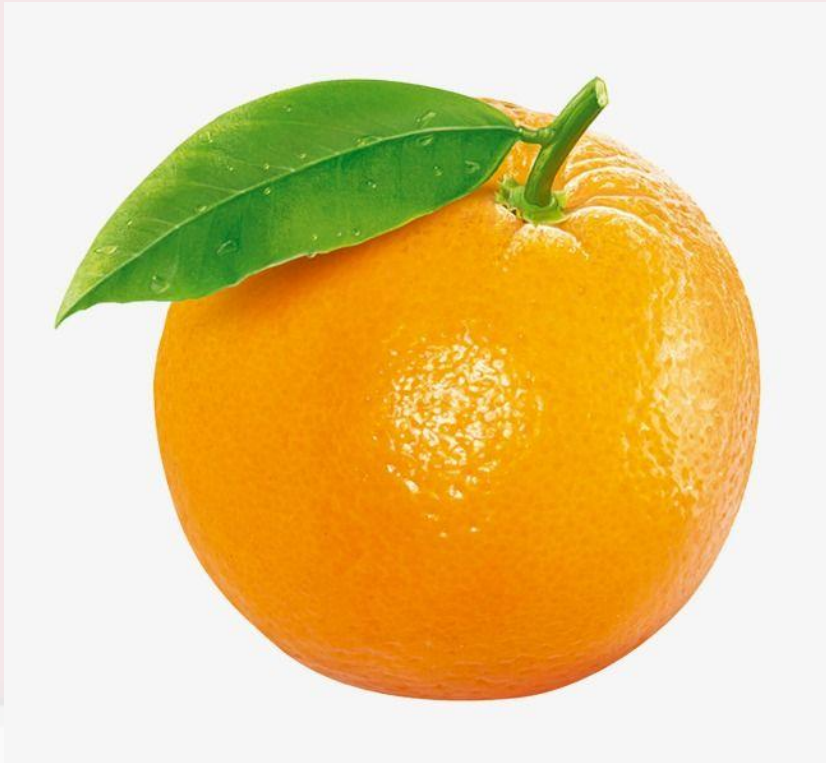

What is an adjective?

When we describe something, we use adjectives. Adjectives help us to tell the reader what something looks like, what it smells like, how it tastes, what it sounds like or how it feels.

You used adjectives last term in science when you investigated different materials and when you described Bob, the ‘Man on the Moon’.

What adjectives can you think of to describe this orange?

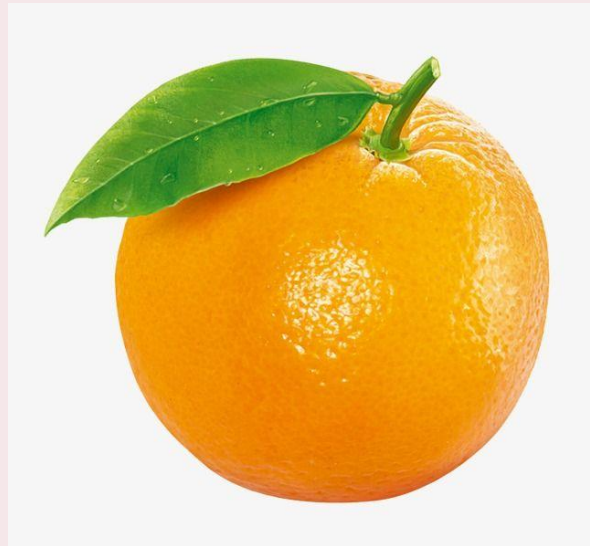

What adjectives can you think of to describe this orange?

Smooth

Soft

Round

Juicy

delicious

Sweet

orange

Bitter

Here is Fantastic Mr Fox. What words would you use to describe him?

LO: describe my favourite Superhero

Fast

Careful

Clever

Caring

Sharp claws

Pointy ears

Furry

Red, ginger, orange fur

Skinny

Smart (smartly dressed)

LO: describe my favourite Superhero.

LO: Describe my favourite superhero

Draw and label your superhero here.

What job does your superhero do by day?

LO: Describe my favourite superhero

Draw and label your superhero here.

What job does your superhero do by day?

Superheroes usually have day jobs. What is your superhero's day job?

By day, Wonder Woman looks just like any other ordinary person. Her day job is working as a secretary in the Army.

LO: Describe my favourite superhero

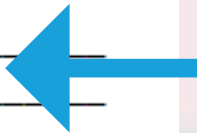

Draw and label your superhero here.

Brave
Fearless Strong (super human strength)
Powerful
Fast
Agile

Gold tiara (acts like a boomerang and can cut things)
Gold lasso (makes people tell the truth)
Bulletproof
bracelets Long red and gold boots

What job does your superhero do by day?

Write a sentence about your superhero's day job here.