

Missing Words and Word Endings

Sometimes when we reread our work, we might notice that we have missed out some words or word endings.

Use this code for the tasks below:
MW: missing word
ME: missing ending

Example: MW: is My teacher[^]very kind. He
ME: helps
help us with our learning.

Abdul has written a story about a dragon and a prince. Can you help him check his writing?

Find and fix 6 missing words and 4 missing word endings. You get one point for each correct edit you make!

Once upon time, there was an enormous, yellow dragon. She breathe fire and scowled at everyone. Her name Hestia. Everyone was afraid her except Prince Zayaan, who tried to make friend with her. He call to her every morning, "Hestia! Come and play me!" She usually ignored him, but one day she flew down. They a wonderful time playing tag (though the prince got a bit worried when Hestia near set him on fire by accident). From then on, the prince and the dragon best friends.

Missing Words and Word Endings

Answers

Sometimes when we reread our work, we might notice that we have missed out some words or word endings.

Use this code for the tasks below:
MW: missing word
ME: missing ending

Example: MW: is My teacher[^]very kind. He
ME: helps
help us with our learning.

Abdul has written a story about a dragon and a prince. Can you help him check his writing? Answers may vary

Find and fix 6 missing words and 4 missing word endings. You get one point for each correct edit you make!

MW: a

Once upon[^]time, there was an enormous, yellow dragon.

ME: breathed

MW: was

She breathe fire and scowled at everyone. Her name [^]

MW: of Hestia. Everyone was afraid[^]her except Prince Zayaan,

ME: friends

ME: called who tried to make friend with her. He call to her

MW: with every morning, "Hestia! Come and play[^]me!" She usually

MW: had ignored him, but one day she flew down. They[^]a wonderful time playing tag (though the prince got a bit

ME: nearly worried when Hestia near set him on fire by accident).

MW: were

From then on, the prince and the dragon[^]best friends.

