

Splitting up Speech

For each speech bubble below, decide where you should split the speech in order to add a reporting clause which matches the images. The first one has been done for you.

Wait for me! I'm on my way!

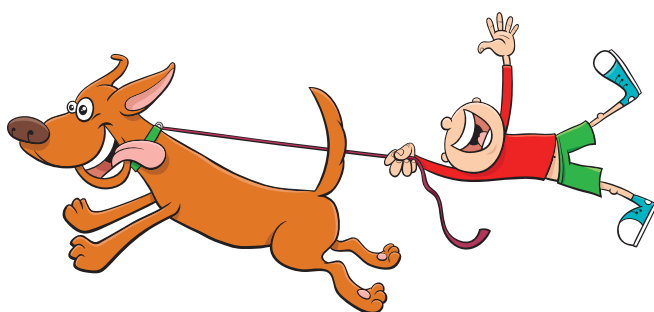

E.g. "Wait for me!" called the girl, who had overslept. "I'm on my way!"

Are you ready to order or do you need another minute?

1.
.....

Slow down Rex! Stop pulling on your lead!

2.
.....

Splitting up Speech

You must be very careful to look both ways.

3.
.....

If I were you, I would take a break.

4.
.....

Oh no, is that the time already?

5.
.....

Splitting up Speech

Answers

For each speech bubble below, decide where you should split the speech in order to add a reporting clause which matches the images. The first one has been done for you.

Wait for me! I'm on my way!

E.g. "Wait for me!" called the girl, who had overslept. "I'm on my way!"

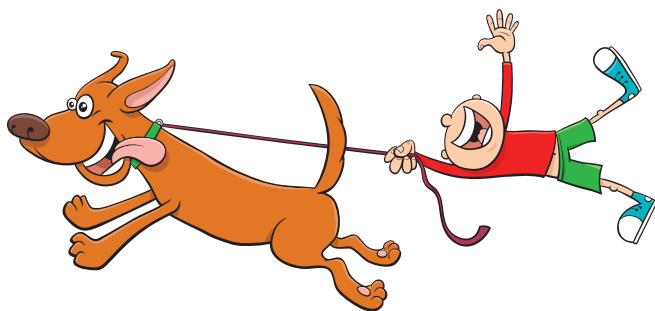

Are you ready to order or do you need another minute?

Wording of reported clauses will vary, but speech punctuation should be as follows:

1. "Are you ready to order," asked the waiter, "or do you need another minute?"

2. "Slow down Rex!" shouted the boy. "Stop pulling on your lead!"

Slow down Rex! Stop pulling on your lead!

Splitting up Speech

Answers

You must be very careful to look both ways.

3. "You must be very careful," said Ama, "to look both ways."

If I were you, I would take a break.

4. "If I were you," advised the girl, "I would take a break."

Oh no, is that the time already?

5. "Oh no," gasped the boy, "is that the time already?"